

GIVING POINTERS . . . Mrs. Kenneth Edwards, right, gives pointers on decorating the doll cake to Miss Kerry Sumowski, who will be among the local women attending the YWCA cake decorating class to begin next Wednesday at the Torrance YWCA. Registration is limited. Those interested may call the YWCA.

For All Occasions Cake Decorating To Be Offered at YW

Cake decorating, which has become an American institution for the celebrating of all occasions, will be offered to interested women of the area in a series of classes to begin Aug. 1 and continue through Sept. 26. The classes, at which the basic fundamentals of this culinary art will be taught, are being sponsored by the Torrance YWCA.

Next Wednesday evening from 1 to 10 p.m., the first class will be held at the YWCA building, 2320 W. Carson St.

Decorating of cakes significant of all occasions, children's parties, holidays, birthdays, anniversaries, plus fancy pastries, and animal cut ups will be demonstrated. Mrs. Kenneth Edwards, who has had many years of schooling and working in bakeries throughout Southern California, is the instructor. At the present time, she is enrolled for advanced classes in baking at the Los Angeles Trade Technical College.

Registration will close immediately following the first class meeting. Class enrollment will be limited to 15 women.

For further information concerning fees and registration, the Torrance YWCA may be called.

Missionary Work in Asia Is Program

Susanna Circle of Torrance First Methodist Church met July 5 at the home of Mrs. Chester Wiley with Mrs. James McClure presiding.

Devotions were given by Mrs. C. P. Olson. Mrs. Edward Goodell gave a missionary report and Mrs. Harlan McCool gave a talk on the work of the Women's Division of Christian Service and led a discussion on the Christian Mission on the "Rim of East Asia."

This was a prologue of the mission study class to be held in October at which the textbook "On Asia's Rim" will be used.

After the program, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Hazel Wiley, served a luncheon.

Members present were Mrs. Mmes. James McClure, Harlan McCool, C. P. Olson, Edward Goodell, Lew Broatch, Walter Bennett, Howard Kell, Ray Raible, Hazel Wiley, Clara Witmer and Ora Donaldson.

Two guests present were Mrs. Vita Paxton and Mrs. Pat McClure.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edward Goodell with Mrs. Ray Raible as co-hostess.

Home From Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Freckleton, 1630 Greenwood Ave., returned last Friday by train from a two weeks vacation in Mexico. The local couple, who had made an extensive trip throughout Mexico last summer, made Guadalajara their headquarters this year, visiting all the surrounding villages.

Alumnae Party

Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae held its annual summer party last Wednesday at the home of Judge and Mrs. O.B. Willett, 221 Via Los Altos.

Approximately 35 alumnae and their guests enjoyed bridge and swimming followed by a luncheon.

Family Vacation

Leaving Friday for a two weeks camping and fishing trip at Lake Tahoe will be Mr. and Mrs. Harold Massie and two children, Mrs. Massie's sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Lawler and three children and Mr. Massie's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Massie and three children.

Morro Bay Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears returned Monday from a two weeks vacation at Morro Bay where they were houseguests of old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hickman and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Simons of Bakersfield.

groceries. If he thinks you are not managing properly, give HIM the $10 and let him try to do better. You'll get your job back pronto—and an increase.

Dear Ann Landers: Why is it that the people who insist liquor is no problem and use the phrase, "I can take it or leave it alone," are always taking it and never leaving it alone?

My husband swears up and down that he is not an alcoholic. Yet, every night he puts away three or four stiff drinks of straight Bourbon or gin, Scotch, or vodka—whatever is on hand. Then he sips until bedtime.

The sippers are hard to nail because you never know exactly how much liquor they are consuming. Occasionally he really hangs one on and gets rip-roaring drunk, but not more than two or three times a year.

Would you say he is an alcoholic or not? — KATE

Dear Kate: The amount of liquor consumed is not nearly as revealing as the consistency with which an individual drinks.

A person who hangs one on a few times a year and does not touch the stuff in between, is not an alcoholic. The person who rarely hangs one on, but must have liquor every day, should beware—because whether he will recognize it or not, he's a problem drinker.

Confidential to NEED HELP BADLY: Do you need help or are you polling opinions? Since you've seen your clergyman, doctor, lawyer, dentist and a marriage counselor I don't think I can add anything.

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Petting—And How Far To Go," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Three State Colleges Added to AAUW List

Three California colleges are among the 15 colleges and universities which have been added to the list of institutions meeting requirements for membership in the American Association of University Women, according to an announcement by Mrs. Ronald Webb, membership chairman of the Manhattan Beach Branch.

The schools are: Long Beach State College, Sacramento State College, and the University of California at Riverside.

To be recognized for AAUW membership, these institutions must maintain high academic standards and a substantial orientation to and foundation in the liberal arts, extend professional recognition to women on faculties and in administration, make adequate provision for women students and maintain academic freedom.

The other new institutions added to the approved list by directors of the AAUW board of directors on recommendation of the Association's Committee on Higher Education are: Bemidji State College, Bemidji, Minn.; Berry College, Mount Berry, Ga.; D'Youville College, Buffalo, N.Y.; Kutztown State College, Kutztown, Pa.; Northeastern State College, Tahlequah, Okla.; Ohio Northern University, Ada, Ohio; Roosevelt University, Chicago, Ill.; Southeastern State College, Durant, Okla.; State College at Bridgewater, Bridgewater, Mass.; Susquehanna University, Selingsgrove, Pa.; West Virginia State College, Institute, W. Va.; and Wisconsin State College, La Crosse, Wis.

Women college graduates interested in the AAUW program may call Mrs. Roland Webb for information about membership. The Manhattan Branch draws members from the cities of Manhattan Beach, Hermosa Beach, Redondo Beach, Gardena, El Segundo and Hawthorne.

MRS. ELLIS P. MYER . . . Tossing a Salad

Typical American Woman Takes Time Out To Share Family's Choice Recipes

Guest cook in today's Favorite Recipe column is Mrs. Ellis Myer, 2610 Ridge Road, Torrance.

Mrs. Myer has exercised and enjoyed all the privileges of the present day American woman. Titles chalked up are scholar, career woman, singer, clubwoman, housewife and mother.

Coming to California in 1950, she had attended South Shore High school in Chicago, Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Northwestern University at the downtown Chicago campus. She had also worked as a secretary.

Her husband, Ellis, whom she met while working in a choral group in Manhattan Beach, is a specialist and analyst for electronic computers. Employed by Systems Development Corp. in Santa Monica, he is currently working on a project to put medical data on electronic equipment. A native Californian, he attended Los Angeles City College and UCLA.

The couple has twin girls, Caryle and Sherrie, 10 years old, and students at Hillside.

The Myer family moved to Torrance seven years ago. Mrs. Myer is an officer with the South Bay Mothers of Twins club. She and her husband both sang with Los Cacioneros for nearly four years and both are members of the choir at the First Christian Church in Torrance, he being assistant choir director and she is soloist.

They are a family of music lovers and just to prove it they named their dachshund "Beethoven."

From her list of recipes which she uses in her club and social activities, Mrs. Myer has chosen her favorites to share with HERALD readers.

BEEF BURGUNDY

2 pounds of top round of beef cut ¼" thick in strips 2 or 3 inches long. Coat with ¼ cup flour, 1½ teaspoon salt and pinch of fresh ground pepper. Melt 3 tablespoons butter in heavy skillet or frypan and brown meat.

Remove meat from pan and in remaining fat lightly brown ½ cup of coarsely chopped onion. Add 1 clove, crushed garlic and 1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley. Stir constantly. Return browned meat to pan.

Heat 1 ounce brandy in ladle, light it and pour over meat. When flame dies, add one 4 ounce can mushrooms with juice, ½ cup condensed beef bouillon, 1 cup burgundy wine and 1 bay leaf. Cover and simmer 1 to 2 hours or until meat is tender. Remove bay leaf and thicken gravy if necessary. Serve over rice. Serves six.

VEGETABLE SALAD

1 can peas	Optional
1 can green beans	green pepper
1 can kidney beans	celery
1 can tuna or diced ham
1 small onion, or green onions chopped
1 small pkg. cheddar cheese

Drain all vegetables thoroughly. Add tuna or diced ham, chopped onion, cheese cut into bite-size pieces and season to taste with salt, pepper, parsley and celery salt. Combine French dressing with mayonnaise and toss gently and chill. Serve with dinner rolls as main course. Serves 4 to 6 people. Recipe can be doubled.

LAMB SHISH-KE-BOBS

Marinade:	1/3 cup lemon juice (fresh)
1½ cups salad oil	1 tsp. black pepper (coarse ground)
½ cup soy sauce	½ cup wine vinegar
¼ cup Worcestershire sauce	1½ tsp. parsley (dry flakes)
2 tsp. dry mustard
2¼ tsp. salt
2 garlic cloves (crushed)

Combine all ingredients and mix well. Makes about 3½ cups. Marinade can be drained from meat for a second use. Store in a tightly covered jar in freezer indefinitely or in refrigerator for one week.

Buy leg or shoulder of lamb in quantity to suit needs and cut in chunks about 1½ inch. Marinate meat in above sauce for several hours or preferably overnight in refrigerator. String meat on skewers alternately with any or all of the following: chunked green pepper; fresh or canned whole mushrooms, small whole onions or onion wedges; stuffed olives, par-boiled potatoes, cut in chunks, tomato wedges or bacon folded in a 1½ inch square, sliced zucchini or sweet red peppers.

A hot fire is required in barbecue. Meat should be cooked until done. During the last five minutes of cooking, brush marinade sauce over all meat and over vegetables if desired. Softer vegetables should be put on separate skewers for shorter cooking. Rotate skewers for even cooking.

ARLINGTON

Program plans for the year 1962-63 were completed at a recent planning conference held at Arlington School. According to Mrs. Phillip Aurit, program chairman, the tentative program will be submitted to council for their approval early in July.

Theme for the year "Focus on Education, In the Home, School, and Community" was adopted. The following corresponding topics were adopted: "Close-up," October; "A View of Our Community Education," November; "Vision of Sugar-plums," December; "Developing Our Heritage," January; "Portrait of Service," February; "Enlarging Our Knowledge," March; "Snapshot of Dad," April; "Exposure to Recreation," May.

Committee members attending this final meeting were: Mmes. Phillip Aurit, Shepard Schiff, Wayne Pearson, Maitland Alexander, Bob Jones, William Bauer, and Mr. Henry Behrens. Other members of the committee unable to attend were: Mmes. R. W. Stevenson, Albert Oliver, M. H. Douglas, Jerry Leonard, and James Misel.

The Budget and Finance committee met recently in the home of its chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Lemke. A tentative budget was set up which will be presented to the members of the association in the fall for their approval and adoption.

HALLDALE

Halldale Avenue PTA was host to approximately 150 children last week when they provided snow cones during playground activities. Preparing and serving the treat were Mrs. William Sather, Recreation chairman; Mrs. Lytle White, president; Mrs. Eugene Theberge, first vice president; Mrs. Ralph Standridge, second vice president; and Mrs. Jack Kenyon, parliamentarian.

Halldale playground is open Monday through Friday from 12:30 to 5:30 under the supervision of Mrs. Jeanne Hoyt. Besides individual play, children may participate in varied group activities, including crafts, skating, team sports, drama, etc. Also scheduled in the program are movies and field trips.

Beta Sigma Breakfast in Santa Monica

Thirty-four members of the South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi and their mothers enjoyed the "Jewels of the Sea" Southern California Council breakfast held at the Miramar Hotel on Sunday, in Santa Monica. Mrs. Bert Whited, Council Civil Defense chairman, gave an interesting report on civil defense. Kitty Mel-lodge, sponsor of South Bay Area Council, greeted members from the head table. The South Bay Council took second place in directory sales for the new 1962-63 directory, it was announced. Those attending the breakfast were Mmes. Art Stezer, Ralph Comer and her mother Mrs. Lucy Karns of Mu Omicron; Ed Litaker, Dean Woodward and Gordon Smith of Omicron Pi; Misses Margie Harbold, Judy Drinnen, Loretta Popovics and Linda Hill of Phi Gamma Sigma; Angus Mitchell, Les Mayfield, Ray Millhouse, Tom McDonald, Fran Nichols and Edna Starnes of Xi Zeta Lambda; Jack Cronander and Jay Echelberger of Rho Xi.

Others were Mmes. Lola Abrams, Katherine Hammargren, Lee Von Iderstein, Floyd Edwards, Al Wilson, Gene Burnell, E. Burnell, Harlins, Gene Olson, and Andrew Foster, president of SBAC of Xi Zeta Chi.

The next Southern California breakfast will be held on Sept. 16 at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach.

Family Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Shirey and Sue, Judith and David, 22026 Ladeen Ave., returned recently from a two weeks vacation. The family went first to Cedar City, Utah, where they enjoyed camping before driving on to Floydada, Texas, to visit Mrs. Shirey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Newell. Mr. Shirey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Shirey of Azle, Texas, joined them in Floydada for a visit.
